

GRAPHIC DESIGN & ILLUSTRATION INTERN 100%

HELVETIQ is excited to accept applications for a spring/summer design internship. The internship is available in Graphic Design and Illustration. The internship provides six months of hands-on experience to recent graduates interested in book, game, package, and digital media design.

ABOUT US

We are a fast-growing international publisher of games and books. We are best-known for our matchbox games, a beer hiking guide to Switzerland and for surprising people with new ideas all the time. We conduct business in over fifteen countries. Our work environment is creative, ambitious and friendly.

REQUIREMENTS

- Undergraduate or graduate degree in a design related field
- Strong working knowledge of graphic design software and web publishing
- Illustration and graphic design skills
- Communication skills, written and verbal, in French and German
- Ability to flow text in long form
- Knowledge of printing techniques, photography and package design are a plus, but not required
- Love of books and games

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Cover letter + CV
- 10 examples of most recent graphic design work (student, personal and/or professional projects welcome) in one PDF document. It should include product shots rather than multiple loose materials

THE BENEFITS

- Join a team where your contribution is valued and immediately visible
- Develop your production skills, commercial awareness, and design sense
- Work in an inspired work environment surrounded by smart and fun people
